and physical
illness, abuse,
loss, and grief,

the ups and

The mother of four children,
Christie
honestly and

transparently tells the story of her family's journey through childhood cancer, teenage suicide, and the death of two children. She recounts the day that she reconnected with her two boys, her father, and her mother, who are safe, happy, and waiting for her on the other side of the veil separating life and "death." As she awakened to the spiritual world, and her unique place in it, she discovered new purpose and joy in the adventure of life. This is a story of suffering and loss, but also of love, hope, resilience, support, and the search for meaning. Look Before You Leap Shovon Ahmed The theme of the book "Eternal Thirst: The Quest for Enlightenment " revolves around the pursuit of spiritual fulfillment and the journey towards enlightenment . Through exploring various aspects such as philosophical foundations, meditation, mentalism, and the journey of self-discovery, the author, Harsh Wardhan Soni, delves into the eternal thirst for knowledge, wisdom, and inner peace. The book emphasizes the importance of embracing desires, finding balance, and sustaining thirst for spiritual growth. It offers insights, practices, and rituals to nourish the soul and encourages readers to embark on their own quest for enlightenment while sharing the wisdom gained along the way.

and cultural significance of wind, and discover a powerful system to utilize the subtle, healing energies in your life.

Winds of Spirit will teach you how to connect with your true inner self, use your body as a compass, and receive life-changing messages from nature.

your personal path, providing insight into how to manage the wind patterns and shifting conditions affecting you.

You will also learn how to invoke wind deities—gods and goddesses from around the world—and the cardinal winds from the four quadrants of the sky, each of which relate to the inner landscape of your life: mind, emotions, body, and spirit. By working with the omnipresent winds in your life, you can restore harmony and balance, heal the body, and inspire creativity.

Experiential practices include wind breath, wind bath, wind knots, and more!

Afterlife: A Private Investigators 15-Year Research Unlocks the Mysteries of Life after Death It is possible for anyone to make the conscious decision to develop, rekindle, or magnify the powers of their intuitive voicetheir psychic mind. This book is written to discuss what it means to be psychic. The path to the supernatural world of the psychic begins by expanding and fine-tuning intuition, then paying close attention to both the seen and unseen world that surrounds us. Our minds are not simply an appendage of our bodies like arms or legs. The mind is a powerful tool from which we can access universal truths and expand our understanding of our inner selves. If you find yourself moved by a strong suspicion that there is more to life than what can be seen or easily explained, then this book is for you. If you find yourself with an overwhelming desire to explore what lies outside the realm of physical science or earthly understanding, this book will inform you. If you want to know what abilities function outside the domain of natural laws, this book will enlighten you.

crisis, dramatic hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, and increased rates of species extinction. According to New Age metaphysician David Ian Cowan, we are in the midst of a 25-year transitional period of planetary shift as our solar system approaches the Galactic Photon Band, a shift that is also affecting our perception of time. The Mayans had a term for this transitional period: the “Time of No Time,” indicating that, post-2012, time as we know it or experience it may not exist at all or will have changed dramatically. In Navigating the Collapse of Time, Cowan synthesizes a broad range of perspectives about this time of transition, from the writings of the ancient Mayans, Aztecs, and Incas, to speculative theory, quantum physics, philosophy, and the nature of illusion and reality posed by a range of theorists and academics including Ken Carey, Barbara Hand Clow, William Gammill, Zecharia Sitchin, Carl Calleman, Gary Renard, Ken Wapnick, Brent Haskel, and many others. He also lets us know what to expect as events continue to unfold and how to navigate this time of change.

How do you get something out of nothing? It seems like an obvious question, one that drives everything from spiritual creation stories to our understanding of the Big Bang. Yet it leaves us with a sense that underneath everything lies emptiness and lack. We can phrase this question in a new way: how do we get something out of everything? In Leap to Wholeness, physics educator Sky

Nelson-Isaacs explores the science of wholeness. To understand wholeness, imagine a beautiful photograph that you want to modify. The image exists in space. Yet graphic designers are familiar with another space, called the frequency domain, or “pattern-space.” Here, changes to the patterns affect the image as a whole. We can make the entire image blurrier or sharper, for instance, with a simple filter in pattern-space. A change to one local region affects the image everywhere. This is an example of wholeness that exists right before our eyes. We each have filters that influence what we see, hear, think, and feel. They take who we are as a whole, and they limit it to what we feel comfortable with--what we already know, rather than how we can grow. We carry models that interpret the world for us. But we can become more aware of our filters and from this awareness experience more flow, more openness, and less anxiety. When we align with circumstances rather than fighting them, we open the door to synchronicities that give us leverage in creating the change we want to see. Following this thread from modern audio technology, to the human brain, to the very nature of time itself, Leap to Wholeness explores a paradigm of wholeness that is easy to miss. For instance, when you look at the red part of a rainbow, you may not realize that you're really seeing white light that's had blue and green filtered out. Or where you see blue, that means red and green are missing. Maybe creating something out of everything is not about what we do...but about what we don't do. By removing filters-- thoughts, feelings, and other reactions--that keep us weaving the same old patterns, we naturally allow ourselves to grow, heal, and adapt. The Leap John Wiley & Sons Waking up spiritually is a life-altering event that shifts the world view, and changes the perception of what it means to be human. It is a significant grace in anyone's life, bringing the potential for profound peace, unconditional love and intuitive wisdom. However, spiritual "seekers" rarely have a clear understanding of what it means to become Awakened or Self-realized, nor do they recognize the natural tendency to become stuck in various cul-de-sacs along the way, or know how to cope with the challenges that arise in this process.

Awakening is both sudden and gradual, often beautiful and ecstatic, but it can also be disorienting as the "seeker" falls away. Few spiritual systems or therapists are able to offer guidance to those in this process, and this can lead to confusion, detours and lengthy periods of darkness before embodiment and freedom are established. "The Awakening Guide" reveals how the search for love, wisdom and wholeness unfolds for those who meditate, and also those who have sudden awakenings to expanded consciousness, radiant emptiness, Oneness and the realization of Self. This might happen following breathing or energy practices, transmission or diksa, traumatic or near-death events, drug experiments, biofeedback, or spontaneously while walking down the street. Consciousness shifts. Wham! Another reality is opened, and the world you know changes before your eyes. Consciousness is invited to recall itself as Source. An initial awakening is seldom permanent, and many seekers are disappointed to discover that this first flash of insight was only a glimpse, and the subsequent months and years require trust, patience and a commitment to living in Truth if they hope to be stabilized in an awakened state. This inspirational book, written by a non-dual teacher and therapist who has explored the path of spiritual awakening for more than 40 years, and witnessed the spiritual emergence of over 2000 people, is a companion to support a new perspective as an old identity falls away. It offers some guidelines for awakening, descriptions of the varieties of experiences that have been called awakening, comments by people who have had glimpses of awakening, and a revelation of the primary issues and resolutions an awakened person may need to face. It is a companion to Dr. Greenwell's book "The Kundalini Guide." Uncharted Ventures: Navigating the Entrepreneurial Odyssey New World

We have a Choice: Peace or Hell. This collection of essays and poetry including the author's experience of the Great Rays, offers reflections on choosing peace while living in a chaotic world. This world is not always a nice place with mass killings, wars, starvation and death! But, happiness and inner peace are possible because it's a conscious choice, nurtured and attended to carefully. The world is dualistic with opposites; good - bad; love - fear and life - death. Consequently we inherited a dualistic split mind. The ego part chooses judgment and separation. It is NOT your friend being the opposite of love. It manipulates; gives only to get; must always win; is jealous; judges everyone and everything making you fearful and unhappy. Observing the ego is crucial for peace otherwise we don't realize the problem. Question the thoughts that run on automatic. They cover the light and innocence that you are with no promise of peace or freedom. Help is available from the other part of your mind: the higher Self. After tiring of the pain and deciding to find another way, with an open mind we go to the stately calm within. Turning inward to quietness we ask for guidance from the Holy Spirit to see things differently. Now open to the gentle inner voice we choose a different perspective. We listen silently for the thought bringing wisdom and gradually removing the blocks to love shining within. We can't do this with the ego. We need Help from truth residing in the mind. It is simple, life changing and it needs watchfulness and mind training.

These essays will help in realizing your true identity: you are innocent; eternal; a Light in this world; you are needed and the promise of peace is worth the effort! work for the ancient Mayans in telecommunication and broadcast frequencies. I was awakened in 2011 by these divine spirits whom I communicate with spiritually as well as telepathically. They have always watched over the planet to ensure that it remains in Universal balance. These beings were responsible for the creation of the first solar calendar and were able to successfully forecast many future events as a result of these detailed solar-planetary energy calculations. They were also responsible for the creation of the Seven Wonders of the World. They have been telepathically connected to many unaware humans as new technology was invented. It is with the guidance of these divine beings that humans continue to create and evolve. It is in the realm of creation, when you are able to quiet the traffic of your mind, you may be able to pick up a thought or suggestion from an alternate dimension. Most will claim this idea as their own, however, I believe otherwise. This is the story of my Alien colleague, Commander Tom. I met her while working for the Ascended Masters. She too was a human awakened to participate in the spiritual ascension of rising from the 3rd dimensional soul to higher frequencies activating her higher consciousness . She had already been recruited by the Ascended Masters who were building a new future and would be forming a new system of government. She was a Quantum jumper, working with the Aliens on the re-stabilization of the planet. My name is Commander

Tom, I was given this name during my ascension. My job had always been in Technology. I worked to assist the field technicians with installation of satellite and wireless frequencies. Back in 2011, I was on a field mission in our nations capital. I was researching the microwave towers. We had hoped that we could increase their power to transmit and receive signals in greater distances in an effort to conserve Satellite space. We were investigating the effects of the corrosion produced by the metal towers on the environment. We were also researching the frequency exchange between these devices on the surrounding environment which we felt was out of balance by observing the natural habitat surrounding our equipment. We were also considering solar powered earth stations and were trying to develop new methods of transmission that did not utilize our existing satellite frequencies and bandwidths. We were hoping to create Earth Stations that were able to simulate the satellite programming to send local transmissions. This would increase the availability of space providing an increase in local and regional programming leaving the

Clark Belt more space for future development of space communications and help to resolve the political pressure on the telecommunications business. It was an exciting time in technology, the future possibilities were infinite. I felt obligated to assist in not only providing access to this technology, but to also take responsibility for the damages it had caused the planets habitat. We needed to ensure that our man-made structures did not destroy the very environment that enabled us to survive as a human race. I had a lot on my mind. Every day I wondered if the technology was good for us or if it would harm us in the future by creating energy fields that our human body suit would be unable to navigate around. Then I had an accident which transformed my life. I met and joined the Ascended Masters to aid in the preservation and evolution of the planet for the 2nd Millennium. This is the story of the start of my journey. Spiritual Growth Macmillan Life is full of challenges, both big and small. Spirituality is here to offer solutions. Over the course of his career as physician, teacher, and bestselling author, Deepak Chopra has received thousands of questions from people facing every kind of challenge. They have asked how to lead more fulfilling lives, how to overcome relationship problems and personal obstacles. What's the best way to deal with a passive-aggressive friend? Can a stagnant career be jump-started? In a world full of distractions and stress, how does one find time for meditation? Hidden among all of these questions are answers waiting to be uncovered. In this groundbreaking book, Chopra shows you how to expand your awareness, which is the key to the confusion and conflict we all face. "The secret is that the level of the problem is never the level of the solution," he writes. By rising to the level of the solution in your own awareness, you can transform obstacles into opportunities. Chopra leads the reader to what he calls "the true self," where peace, clarity, and wisdom serve as guides in times of crisis. For Chopra, spirituality is primarily about consciousness, not about religious dogma or relying on the conventional notion of God.
