If you are struggling with your children and want to be a better parent, A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps is the book for you. It is inspired by the amazing, child-transforming results which South Africa's 'Super Granny' Andalene Salvesen has gained from her home visits around the world, and shows that your child only changes when you become an empowered parent. Children are not born with boundaries and parents are often ill-equipped to enforce appropriate house rules. A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps will help parents to regain their authority so that children can once again just be children. It guides parents to choose creative ideas for discipline thereby eliminating today's epidemic of shouting and guilt-based parenting. Andalene covers all the childhood phases, from tots to teens, dealing with appropriate consequences for anything from tantrums to silent defiance.

Andelene's five easy steps will empower every parent to achieve the desired results with their children. Parents will easily relate to Andalene's descriptions of her home visits - often humorous, sometimes emotional - and the problems she encounters in different homes. Parenting can be an exciting journey, and A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps is an excellent start to moving your family into a healthier, happier and more empowered direction.

When a woman becomes pregnant, miscarriage is usually the furthest thing from her mind. Such was the case for Jessalyn Hutto when she became pregnant with her first baby. But as is all too common in our post-fall world, the life she carried came to an abrupt end.

Death had visited her womb, and the horrors of miscarriage had become a part of her life's story. ••• Ultimately, she would lose two children in the womb, at 6 and 15 weeks gestation. Through these painful losses, a whole new world of suffering opened up to her. It seemed that everywhere she looked women were quietly mourning the loss of their unborn children. Yet this particular type of loss has been grossly overlooked by the church. ••• Couples navigating the unique sorrow of losing a child are often left with little biblical counsel to draw upon. Well-meaning friends and family often offer empty platitudes and Christian clichés. But what these couples truly need is the hope of the gospel. ••• Short, sensitive, and theologically robust, Inheritance of Tears offers hope and comfort to those who are called to walk through the painful trial of miscarriage, and shows pastors and church members how to effectively minister to these parents in their time of need.

Between getting into a tangle with a corrupt local judge, and discovering a disturbing black-market business, Dr. Siri and Inspector Phosy have their hands full in the thirteenth installment of Colin Cotterill's quirky, critically acclaimed series. Dr. Siri Paiboun, the 75-year-old ex-national coroner of Laos, may have more experience dissecting bodies than making art, but now that he's managed to smuggle a fancy movie camera into the country, he devises a plan to shoot a Lao adaptation of War and Peace with his friend Civilai. The only problem? The Ministry of Culture must approve the script before they can get rolling. That, and they can't figure out how to turn on the camera. Meanwhile, the skeleton of a woman has appeared under the Anusawari Arch in the middle of the night. Siri puts his directorial debut on hold and assists his friend Phosy, the newly promoted Senior Police Inspector, with the ensuing investigation. Though the death of the unknown woman seems to be recent, the flesh on her corpse has been picked off in places as if something—or someone—has been gnawing on the bones. The plot Siri and his friends uncover involves much more than a single set of skeletal remains.
