Sanctus from the Mass for Four Voices

Oxford University Press
In Mary Lou Williams:
Music for the Soul,
Deanna Witkowski
brings a fresh perspective to the life and music of the legendary jazz pianist-composer Mary Lou Williams (1910-81). As a fellow jazz pianist-composer, adult
convert to Catholicism, and liturgical
composer, Witkowski
offers unique insight gleaned from a twenty-year journey with Williams as her chosen musical and spiritual mentor. Viewing Williams's musical and corporal acts of mercy
as part of a singular effort to create
community no matter

the context, Witkowski examines how Williams created networks of support and friendship
through her decades
long letter correspondence with various women religious, her charitable work, and her tireless efforts to perform jazz in churches, community
centers, concert halls, and schools.
Throughout this fascinating story told with equal amounts of deep love and scholarly research, Witkowski illumines Williams's passionate mantra that "jazz is healing to the soul."

Gentle forward motion
and soaring melodic
lines create a unique interpretation of this popular, traditional text. Contrasting

legato vocal lines with a flowing, eighth-note driven piano part come together in this song that is highly musical and artistically satisfying. Equally as effective as a concert offering or as the ballad selection in your contest selections.

Sanctus in D Bwv 238 for Satb Choir: Choral Octavo Cambridge University Press

This triumphant setting of the traditional Latin text features a bright and energetic accompaniment and includes a pronunciation and translation guide. The expressive contrasts between each section and the canonic interplay between vocal parts are exciting to sing and hear.

Palestrina wrote over 100 masses for various combinations of voices. Of these masses, around 50 are adaptations based on previously composed music by Palestrina himself or others before him. Many of the rest are based on plainchant which provides the melodic material. Of these chant-based works, 30 are considered "paraphrase masses" in which the chant is not confined to just the tenor voice but fragments of the line are passed throughout all the voices. Alternate parts have been provided for several voices.

Antonine Goodchild, O.P. What a wonderful find this is: an ideal textbook on chant for junior high, high school, or really any age. It is mercifully free of verbiage or exaggerated detail. It is short and completely clear on all aspects of learning to chant (notes, rhythm, Latin, style), and it contains a vast amount of the basic repertoire, in neumes and with English translations. It even has study questions! Many of us have wished that such a book would be written. It took Fr. Samuel Weber to point out that such a book already exists, and now, praise be to God, it is in print again. As the title says, it is the perfect text for Church and school. It came out in 1944 but it isn't in the slightest bit dated. This is priced for mass distribution.
