The Essence of Phi Kappa Omega: The History of Alpha Kappa
Alpha's First Chapter
Chartered in the New Millennium captures
the legacy and the
extraordinary work of women dedicated to serving mankind. The book is a combination of archival materials,
text and photographs
that chronicle the Chapter's Chartering
and the first twenty years of service
activities and celebrations. It

embraces the ideals of it's Founders - to
"foster friendship,
scholarship and high
ethical and moral standards". The formal written history serves as the legacy and
heritage of Phi Kappa Omega Chapter to ensure future leaders
are empowered to lead
with a knowledge of the past. The book
frames the chapter's beginnings and shares
the motivations of the members through the years. It inspire
members to celebrate accomplishments and
presents them with images of leaders with diverse talents to showcase a wide variety of activities and information that encourage members to participate, lead, and make a difference in the chapter. The goal of the book is to keep alive the history of the Phi Kappa Omega by teaching and sharing it with others. It is a place to showcase the chapter's history and to communicate the accomplishments of the sisterhood. The Essence of Phi Kappa Omega: The History of Alpha Kappa Alpha's First chapter Chartered in the New Millennium is dedicated to the members who consistently embody the principles of the Sorority - Sisterhood, Scholarship, and Service to all Humankind. Hold High the Torch! AuthorHouse Seasons of Sisterhood provides meditations for daily living inspired by the words of the women of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Founded in 1908 on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C., Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is the oldest Greek-lettered organization established by African American college-educated women. Since its founding, the women of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority have pursued a mission of service designed to promote unity among women and enhance the social stature of African Americans. The words of these women are powerful and inspiring - especially given the context of the social and political times in which they lived. Moreover, the messages that these women sought to convey have as much meaning and impact for today's reader as they did when they were first shared. Celebrate the history and contributions of the women of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority through meditations inspired by their words. The Essence of Phi Kappa Omega Trafford Publishing

 100 Years of Excellence: A History of Delta Omega Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha

Sorority, Incorporated(R) 1921-2021 The Centennial Edition, chronicles and places the history of the 4th oldest chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority in historical and cultural context, amid a backdrop of changes occurring in the African American community. On February 26, 1921, Delta Omega became first graduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated(R) chartered on the East Coast, the fourth oldest graduate chapter chartered in the United States, and first Greek-lettered organization on the campus of Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute (later VSU). Six VNII faculty members: Pauline Puryear, Louise Hunter, May Seabrook, Lucy Bullock, Edna Colson, and Pearl Richardson, along with National President Lorraine Green, formed Nu chapter (graduate). The chapter name was changed to Delta Omega in 1922. Four dormitories, one archives building, two auditoriums, and library located on VSU and in Ettrick, are named for Delta Omega legends. This is their story.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc (AKA) is an
scholarship, and
the premise of making
life better for all mankind. The Sorority
was the brainchild of a courageous African American college
educated woman, Ethel Hedgeman Lyle.

Forging ahead with the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Chi Omega Chapter of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, is proud to dedicate this history book to Anna Easter Brown, a founding member of the sorority and charter member of Chi Omega. The chapter has researched extensively, carefully compiled, and printed this history book with love, dedication and honor. Included in this rich history are profiles for former National Presidents, former Regional Directors, and chapter members who played key roles when Chi Omega was host for Regional Conferences, Leadership Conferences, and Cluster Meetings. Chi Omega has presented a snapshot of its many national and local programs.

A Timeless History

Trafford Publishing

This book is the chronological history of one of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's graduate chapters, Phi Eta Omega of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, from its chartering in 1999 through 2013.

Ten inactive members (sorors) of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., rekindling a desire to be of service to others, assembled at a soror's home in Plainfield, New Jersey, in the early winter of 1998. Soon this small group grew to fourteen and, ultimately, to seventeen women.

These seventeen inactive sorors became an official interest group of the sorority later that year. With the mission to promote harmony and friendship among members, to develop and implement programs to enhance the self-esteem of youth, and to assist others wherever needed in their communities, these women, full of energy and enthusiasm, ventured into unknown waters. Becoming the first Greek letter organization to affiliate with the New Jersey Orators, the Scotch Plains/Union County Interest Group helped foster the development of confidence and public speaking skills in youth ages seven to seventeen. TAG, a weekly tutorial program, was also established. Since its chartering on June 6, 1999, Phi Eta Omega Chapter continues to institute and participate in other altruistic programs: the Angel Network; collection of coats and other winter clothing during local coat drives; donation of suits for Dress Barn's Dress for Success; financial support to two Kenyan students in Africa; donation of duffel bags filled with pajamas, clothing, books, and other sundries to Union County Division of Child Protection and Permanency; and the replacement of the headstone of Caesar, a Revolutionary War-freed slave, at Scotch Plains Baptist Church in Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

Timeless History and Legacy of Kappa Upsilon Omega Chapter is a book that chronicles the beginning of this chapter (KUO) in Aiken, South Carolina. It shares the vision of Justine Hickson and other chartering members of KUO. Fifteen women decided they wanted to start a chapter in Aiken, South Carolina. This dream became a reality on April 13, 1976; and so began Kappa Upsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.: an organization of professional, educated, and dedicated women, all who share a passion and commitment to the ideals of their great sisterhood, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., founded in 1908 on the campus of Howard University. The history of Kappa Upsilon Omega Chapter traces the beginning programs of this chapter until now with emphasis on "service to mankind." Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated Chi Omega Chapter Timeless Service Through the Years 1925-2014

Since the beginning in 1943, the mission of the Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has been to cultivate scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women, and to be of service to all mankind. Timeless Service in Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter chronicles the history of the women who sojourned in the life of one chapter of the first Black female Greek letter organization and the events that impacted their journey in Savannah, Georgia, from 1943 to 2012. Emma Jean Hawkins Conyers, former president of the GSO Chapter, begins with the story of Adeline Graham, a white philanthropist who bequeathed funds to the chapter for use in establishing an orphanage for Negro children, and reveals how the chapter responded to the challenge. As she continues the chapter's history through the years, Conyers shares notable details on members, awards, community projects, and events that helped to preserve a legacy that endures to this day. Timeless Service in Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter captures the spirit of unity, sisterhood, and service that still drives the sorority to fulfill the mission after commencing nearly seven decades ago.

A Passage of Timeless History

The essence of this book is to portray a chronological outline of the history of the Upsilon Delta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. The story starts with the interest group that had desires to start an organization in the south Jersey area that would follow the guidelines of Alpha Kappa Alpha regarding community service. This book will give the reader an overview of the process that it took this particular group of like-minded women to initiate, follow up and execute their plan. Once the chapter became official, the book highlights the various administrations that were elected to guide the members through a series of programs that varied every four years. The programs have been focused on family, education, economic security, social justice and global hunger. The reader will have a better understanding of how the Upsilon Delta Omega Chapter has a mission to have a positive impact on the surrounding communities by offering countless free workshops, hosting picnics and seminars for family shelters and providing scholarships to deserving students that are attending college. These events are vividly captured with photos and highlighted with media articles.

A Legacy Supreme

From the acclaimed author of Just My Luck comes the story of Cajen, Tiara, Stephanie, Malena, and Chancey, five young African-American college women from diverse backgrounds who pledge a sorority and find strength in sisterhood.
