La Souris verte Gautier Languereau
Pourquoi "la Souris
verte"? Il s'agit d'un roman d'amour fou en temps de guerre. Le narrateur est le personnage. Son prénom est Marc.
Etudiant, il parcourt les rues de son quartier d'Auteuil ou se rend à la Sorbonne pour ses cours. Apparaît le Paris de l'Occupation, Paris, la ville blessée, Paris comme un être vivant, palpitant, espérant, le Paris d'une époque

dans laquelle le lecteur va vivre comme si le temps s'inversait. Et surgit l'étincelle d'un immense amour, d'un amour interdit par l'histoire, l'amour de Marc et de Maria.
Comme dans ses
Allumettes suédoises,
avec une grande intensité, Robert Sabatier évoque la vie quotidienne, les êtres, les objets, les coutumes, le climat particulier d'une époque en mille détails révélateurs. Dans cette Souris verte, le naturel, la sobriété de l'écriture sont au service d'une narration émouvante où les tourments, les ardeurs, les passions ont la spontanéité et le charme de la jeunesse. Marc et Maria, main dans la main, ne cesseront plus de cheminer dans la pensée du lecteur. Une souris verte Casterman Jeunesse Words are everywhere! Come on this lively adventure to learn more about how they can be shortened, extended, and even switched around. Meet ugly words, colourful words, and words that just need a friend. The Art of Words is a unique, fun and interactive story about the magic of words.

Two children and their adorable dog are illustrated playfully interacting with letters and words, and discovering myriad word functions and capabilities.

Typography is a major feature and each page shows words that are scaled, coloured, and positioned to enhance their meaning and reflect the interplay of their verbal and visual aspects. At only 100 words, this 'language through adventure' book is intended to excite young children about language, especially the joy of words and their capabilities. Visually, it depicts an imaginative natural world with abundant greenery, stars, animals and flowers, and children engaging in sports, adventure and STEM!

The illustrations aim to embrace and depict diversity in gender and race and cater to varied literacy levels. The font choices are simple and clear, to ensure beginning readers can engage confidently. Children, parents, carers and teachers alike will delight in this quirky celebration of the joy and power of words. Readers will come to appreciate the joy of making stories from words, and will be reminded that even books that teach can be fun!

"This clever take on the afraid-to-go-to-school theme should have broad appeal."
-School Library Journal An adorable back to school story from Kazuo Iwamura! It's time for seven little mice to start school! And it's up to Mother Mouse to get them there. When the little mice prove reluctant, Mother Mouse invents "the mouse train" -- all aboard! "Assuaging the anxieties of one first-time student is tough enough, let alone seven. This story about finding creative solutions unfolds with understated elegance..." -Publishers Weekly Caldecott Honor artist and bestseller David Shannon make readers laugh aloud in this next story about the troublemaking David! "When David gets in trouble, he always says . . . 'NO! It's not my fault! I didn't mean to!

It was an accident!"
Whatever the situation, David's got a good excuse. And no matter what he's done
"wrong," it's never really his fault. Soon, though, David realizes that making excuses
makes him feel bad,
and saying he's sorry
makes him feel better.
Once again, David Shannon entertains us with young David's mischievous antics and a lighthearted story that's sure to leave kids (and parents)
laughing.

The Tigon and the Liger Chronicle Books
When you're so skinny people call you Skeleton Boy, how do you find strength for the fight of your life?

Vonlai knows that soldiers who guard the Mekong River shoot at anything that moves,
but in oppressive
Communist Laos, there's nothing left for him, his spirited sister, Dalah, and his desperate parents.
Their only hope is a refugee camp in Thailand—on the other side of the river. When they reach the camp,
their struggles are far from over. Na Pho is a forgotten place where life consists of squalid huts, stifling heat, and rationed food. Still, Vonlai tries to carry on as if everything is normal. He pays attention in school, a dusty barrack overcrowded with kids
too hungry to learn.
And, to forget his empty stomach, he plays soccer in a field full of rocks. But when someone inside the camp threatens his family, Vonlai calls on a forbidden skill to protect their future—a future he's sure is full of promise, if only they can make it out of Na Pho alive. In her compelling debut, Laura Manivong has written an evocative story that is vividly real, strongly affecting, and, at its heart, about hope that resonates in even the darkest moments.

Romaniste, auteur d'une thèse sur la mythologie hindoue, Michel Defourny répète volontiers qu'il est passé « du mythe au conte ». C'est par la porte des contes indiens qu'il est entré en littérature de jeunesse, domaine pour lequel il se passionne depuis plus de quarante ans.

Chercheur, pédagogue, homme de terrain très attentif à la formation des bibliothécaires et des enseignants, ses recherches sur l'album jeunesse font autorité en Belgique et dans le monde. Ce recueil propose un florilège d'articles récents de Michel Defourny, extraits de la presse, de revues spécialisées et de contributions à des colloques universitaires.

L'ensemble reflète la multiplicité et la pertinence des points de vue et des intérêts de l'auteur. Il est centré sur l'album, son origine et son histoire, ses liens avec la création artistique, son rayonnement actuel, notamment en Belgique francophone. Mais il s'aventure aussi au sein de domaines proches, comme celui de la comptine, du conte et du documentaire. Cet ouvrage intéressera tous ceux et toutes celles qui sont amenés à organiser la rencontre entre l'enfant et les livres. Il s'adresse donc avant tout aux instituteurs, bibliothécaires, puéricultrices. Mais aussi, de manière générale, à tous les «passeurs de livres». Et bien entendu aux parents.

All in step with wing in wing . . . Chicks can conquer anything!
Nerdy Chick has been waiting all day for the Rocket Club meeting.

But when she gets there, she finds a disturbing sign tacked to the door: "NO CHICKS ALLOWED!!!"
Puzzled, then baffled,
then just plain mad, Nerdy Chick sets out to change the rules.
Along the way, she meets other chicks
who are just like her:
passionate and determined. From Soccer Chick to Science Chick and Wordy Chick to Yoga
Chick, these chicks aren't willing to take
"NO" for an answer.

They rally together, march to the barn at the center of town, and—when they hear “NO” once again—chart their own path forward (or, rather, up, up, and away!). A celebration of girl power and community action, Chicks Rule! is the playful, diverse, victorious anthem chicks everywhere will love.

 "Vivian French tells a gardening adventure and offers underground facts, including helpful hints on how to become a 'wormologist.' " — USA Today Who would want to be friends with a wiggly, slimy worm? You can't even tell which end is which! But there's more to these lowly creatures than meets the eye. Kids are invited to find out where worms live, see how they move, and understand why gardeners consider them friends with the help of this humorous and informative look at an unappreciated — and fascinating — creature. Back matter includes further information about worms and an index.

A follow-up to the best-selling The Storm Whale, winner of the 2014 inaugural Oscar's First Book Prize in association with the Evening Standard. It's winter time and Noi's island is covered in a blanket of snow. Even the sea is icing over. Noi is worried about the little whale he saved last summer: Can he survive the harsh conditions? Little does Noi know that it's the little whale's turn to save him. A magical and touching story about a lasting friendship. A truly beautiful work packing a real emotional punch. 'At the heart of this emotionally charged story is the joy of a lasting friendship, tender and true' Fiona Noble for The
