"Die Menschen werden
selbstverständlich dazu kommen, den Geist in ihrer Seele zu fühlen,
und zwar nicht
abstrakt, wie sie es

heute tun, sondern sie werden empfinden, wie dieser Geist in ihrer Seele regelmäßig und gesetzmäßig wirkt. Und sie werden, wenn ihnen etwas eingefallen ist, wenn sie selber ihr Seelisches mitteilen wollen, nicht darauf losstürzen wie ein wütender Stier auf die Menschheit, sondern darauf hinhorchen, was die geisterfüllte Natur im Innern des Menschen spricht." Rudolf Steiner, Berlin, 7. März 1911 Zum wirklichkeitsgemäßen Umgang mit Ideen und Initiativen gehört, den richtigen Zeitpunkt ihrer Verwirklichung abwarten zu können. In innerer, geistiger Betätigung können unsere Ideen und Initiativen sogar von den Göttern getauft werden.

In this final volume of his comprehensive biography of Rudolf Steiner, Peter Selg describes Steiner's final months on Earth. Although his health was beginning to decline, 1924 might have been his most productive and fruitful years. It saw a new beginning for the Anthroposophical Society and the beginning of the Esoteric School and the School for Spiritual Science. The year began with the "Christmas Conference," during which the Anthroposophical Society was reborn). That year also witnessed Rudolf Steiner's "Karmic Relationships" lectures, as well as the serialized "Leading Thoughts," summarized Anthroposophy in a series of aphoristic guidelines for meditation, supplemented by essays on the Michaelic nature of Anthroposophy. Also serialized in the Goetheanum newsletter were autobiographical chapters in Rudolf Steiner's life up to 1907. He also defined his important spiritual relationships with Ita Wegman, Marie Steiner, and Lili Kolisko, as well as their significant connection to the Society and his spiritual legacy. New initiatives were also planted in the world during this time, including anthroposophically extended medicine and biodynamic agriculture. From his sickbed in the Goetheanum carpentry shop, Steiner also formed plans and a model for the new Goetheanum in Dornach, Switzerland. Also included in this volume is a lecture by Rudolf Steiner on June 4, 1924, "The Festival of Pentecost." Book jacket.

Life and Work of Rudolf Steiner

SteinerBooks
Lectures and addresses, 1919-1924 (CW 298) "Ultimately, isn't it a very holy and religious obligation to cultivate and educate the divine spiritual element that manifests anew in every human being who is born? Isn't this educational service a religious service in the highest

sense of the word?
Isn't it so that our holiest stirrings, which we dedicate to religious feeling, must all come together in our service at the altar when we attempt to cultivate the divine
spiritual aspect of the human being, whose potentials are revealed
in the growing child?
Science that comes alive! Art that comes alive! Religion that comes alive! In the end, that's what education is." --Rudolf Steiner, Sept. 7, 1919
Sponsored by the
industrialist Emil Molt and inspired by the philosopher Rudolf
Steiner, the first Free Waldorf school opened in Stuttgart, Germany,
on September 7, 1919.
Since then, the Waldorf movement has become international with
many hundreds of

schools around the world. This book contains all of the more-or-less informal talks given by Steiner
in the Stuttgart school from 1919 to 1924.
Included are speeches
given by him at various school assemblies,
parents' evenings, and other meetings. Steiner spoke here with
spontaneity, warmth,
and enthusiasm.
Readers will find a unique glimpse of the real Steiner and how he viewed the school and the educational philosophy he brought into being. German

Written 1924-1925 (CW
28) "Because I entered

this world with defined soul predispositions, and because the course of my life, as expressed in my biography, is determined by those predispositions, as a spiritual human being I must have existed before my birth. As a being of spirit, I must be the repetition of someone through whose biography mine can be explained. In each life the human spirit appears as a repetition of itself with the fruits of experiences during previous lives. --Rudolf Steiner

Rudolf Steiner seldom spoke of himself in a personal way, but in his Autobiography we are offered a rare glimpse into some of the most intimate aspects of his inner life, his personal relationships, and significant events that helped to shape the philosopher, seer, and teacher he became. This edition restores the original format of seventy chapters, just as they were written for the Goetheanum weekly newsletter. This autobiography is not merely a narrative of Rudolf Steiner's successes and failures, but the story of a soul possessed of a precise, probing scientific mind and a natural clairvoyant ability to see into the spiritual world. Although naturally clairvoyant, Steiner always recognized the integrity and importance of modern scientific methods, and thus he developed a modern discipline he named Anthroposophy, or spiritual science. During the century that followed the events recorded in this autobiography, Rudolf Steiner's insights have touched and enriched numerous areas of life in ways that continue to transform people's lives in the twenty-first century. This illustrated, revised, updated, and expanded edition was the first volume to be released in The Collected Works of Rudolf Steiner. This series will eventually collect all of the English translations of Rudolf Steiner's works--including many never before in English--into an attractive and uniform set of his written and spoken words. This volume is a translation from German of Mein Lebensgang (GA 28). Rudolf Steiner

Dieses Buch ist ein Bericht, beschreibt die Begegnung mit Werk und Wirken Rudolf Steiners und welche Erfahrungen sich daraus ergeben können. Einen Weg zu Rudolf Steiner, der Anthroposophie und zu Christus muss jeder Mensch selbst finden und kann einen lebensverändernden Aufbruch zu neuen Ufern bewirken. Die Intention dieses Buches ist, zu berichten und Anknüpfungspunkte zu bieten. Es beinhaltet aber auch eine klare Position als Ergebnis der Begegnung mit Rudolf Steiner: Das Christusbewusstsein als seelisches und soziales Ereignis. Dieses Buch erfordert Toleranz und geistige Offenheit sowie die Bereitschaft, selbstständig zu denken, zu forschen, zu finden, um dann eigene Einschätzungen zu bilden. In allererster Linie handelt dieses Buch jedoch von Christus. Rudolf Steiner zeigt einen Weg zu Christus, und aus der Begegnung mit Christus können wir unser Christusbewusstsein entwickeln.

Über das Ereignis des Todes und Tatsachen der nachtodlichen Zeit

Rudolf Steiner Press
1 lecture, Stuttgart, March 6, 1910 (CW 118) "The being whom we call Christ once walked the earth in flesh and blood at the beginning of our era. He will never again return in a physical body, for that was a unique event and will not be repeated. But

He will come again in an etheric form in the period I have mentioned. People will learn to perceive Christ by virtue of growing towards him through this etheric perception." Many contemporaries of Jesus Christ were unaware of his incarnation on Earth at the beginning of the modern era. Moreover, today, says Rudolf Steiner, many remain ignorant of the most important event of our time: the appearance of Christ in the etheric, life realm of the Earth. Fundamentalists and millennial groups are awaiting the second physical incarnation, whereas atheists and materialists deny spirit altogether. Nevertheless, an incisive transformation is occurring in the human soul that will lead to an emerging clairvoyance. Just as Paul perceived Christ at Damascus, it is appropriate that every human being should experience him today. This lecture is translated from the German book Das Ereignis der Christus-Erscheinung in der ätherischen Welt (GA 118).

Rudolf Steiner is indisputably a major thinker in education. Heiner Ullrich's volume offers the most coherent account of Steiner's educational thought. This work is divided into: Intellectual biography Critical exposition of Steiner's work The reception and influence of Steiner's work The relevance of the work today

'I rang the bell, the door opened, and there stood Rudolf Steiner in person. I was so taken aback that I dropped the basket which burst open and all my clothes and underclothes, together with my other belongings, were lying at the feet of the Doctor. A ball of wool got away and rolled between Dr Steiner's feet into the long corridor. Somewhat surprised, but amused, he said: "I have never been greeted in this way."'

The Waldorf School movement has its roots in the chaotic period following the First World War. Struggling to create the first school, Rudolf Steiner worked on every detail. Lesson plans, religious education, school hours, course resources, administration, finance, child study; no aspect of school life was beyond his attention. Guiding the faculty and demonstrating a phenomenal range of knowledge, Steiner moved toward his goal of creating a vehicle for social transformation. These two volumes span the years 1919 to 1924 and cover, meeting by meeting, the development of the first Waldorf School. Here is Rudolf Steiner, not through the written word or lectures but in transcribed interaction that details the creation process. Participating in a work in progress, Steiner deals with an amazing array of problems, frustrations, successes and failures. His sleeves rolled up and his sight on a vision that he made a reality, Rudolf Steiner lays the foundations of Waldorf

Education. This detailed look, behind the scenes, will interest not only teachers, but also parents and students: anyone who wants to know how a successful worldwide school movement arose.
