Self Evaluation Study

Abstract: "This project was completed in March 2005 at California State University, Bakersfield in order to complete the requirements for a Master's Degree in Bilingual/Multicultural Education. It involved a presentation of a Multicultural Education Workshop as part of ongoing In-Service training for the faculty and staff of Taft College. Although the student demographics at Taft College, a community college located in the small town of Taft in Kern County, California, consists of over 40% students of color, the demographics of the faculty and administration consists of over 90% white. Part of the workshop included a pre-test/post-test to determine whether or not the faculty and staff would show an increase in their knowledge and understanding of multicultural education."

Two Way

The most comprehensive training manual in the U.S. for community interpreters, this book supports a 40- to 60-hour certificate program and can be used for self study and to prepare for medical interpreter certification. It teaches how to interpret in medical, educational and social service settings. Used in a growing number of academic programs as a textbook, the manual covers an overview of the profession, national ethics and standards of practice, interpreter certification, language access laws, professional skills (pre-session to post-session), positioning and terminology, modes of interpreting, steps for sight translation, strategies for intervention, how to perform cultural mediation, and many other skills and topics.

Multicultural Education Training for Taft College Faculty

Rudy Calderón's sixteenth book of verse, Peregrinaje, is the latest volume of poetry from the Mexican American poet from California. The poetry in this book spans the course of three years with the latest poems being written in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Being a bilingual volume, the readership can enjoy it in either English or Spanish. From poems like "Son of the Americas" or "Tomorrow Will Be a Better Day," readers will discover a poet who has a deep love for the Americas as well as someone who has a keen viewpoint on the social ills of society. More than anything else, it is a volume of poetry that inspires critical thinking and an appreciation of the world. El libro de verso decimosexto de Rudy Calderón, Peregrinaje, es el último volumen de poesía del poeta mexicano-americano procedente de California. La poesía en este libro abarca temas que fueron escritos los últimos tres años con lo más recientes habiend sido escritos en Santo Domingo, República Dominicana. Siendo un volumen de poesía bilingüe, los lectores podrán disfrutarlo en inglés o español. Desde poemas como "Hijo de las Américas" o "Mañana será un día mejor," lectores van a descubrir a un poeta que tiene un amor que abarca Las Américas y también alguien que tiene una punto de vista sagaz en cuestión a las desgracias causadas por la sociedad. Más que nada, es un libro de poesía que inspira el pensamiento crítico y una apreciación del mundo.
