 This book presents a significant amount of structural, paleomagnetic and magnetic fabric data in the Central High Atlas (Morocco). The authors thoroughly described and analyzed the present-day structure of this intraplate chain through 22 of cross-sections, potential field data analysis and 3D reconstruction. In addition, the authors propose a palinspastic reconstruction of the structure of the basin at 100 Ma (i.e., post-extension and pre-compression) to finally evaluate its Mesozoic and Cenozoic geodynamic evolution. This books presents (1) a unique three-dimensional model at the chain scale, (2) an analysis of the ca. 100 Ma remagnetization, to perform palinspastic restorations of most representative structures, (3) as well as the interpretation of the magnetic fabrics in order to unravel the tectonic or deformation setting that the rocks underwent in different parts of the basin. This book is of interest to structural geologists in Northern Africa, the Mediterranean and Iberia, as well as to those interested in inverted intraplate basins and paleomagnetists from around the planet. Also, this book is intended to help students to understand better the geological evolution of the Atlas and therefore Morocco and surrounding areas.

Homo sapiens, homo pugnans, and so it has been since the beginning of recorded history. In the Middle Ages, especially, armed conflict and the military life were so much a part of the political and cultural development that a general account of this period is, in large measure, a description of how men went to war.

The Athenaeum

La 4ème de couverture indique: "1815-1914 : révolution industrielle, affaire Dreyfus, urbanisme haussmannien, impressionnisme ou Art nouveau, Belle Époque... ces mots évoquent immédiatement le XIXe siècle. Après le choc qu'a été la Révolution française, c'est l'éclosion d'une nouvelle ère, qui oscille entre nostalgie du passé et projection vers l'avenir. 1815-1851 : au lendemain du Premier Empire commence un combat pour les libertés. La société est fragilisée et divisée, mais les débuts de la modernisation apportent un début de croissance. 1852-1879 : c'est le temps de la spectaculaire modernisation économique et sociale. 1880-1914 : la Troisième République ouvre soixante ans de stabilité institutionnelle, malgré de nombreuses oppositions et tensions sociales. Les 80 cartes et infographies originales de cet atlas rendent ainsi compte des évolutions politiques, économiques et sociales de ce XIXe siècle français."

Atlas de la République Française

This study investigates the development of urbanism in the north-western provinces of the Roman empire. Key themes include continuity and discontinuity between pre-Roman and Roman 'urban' systems, relationships between juridical statuses and levels of monumentality, levels of connectivity and economic integration, and regional urban hierarchies.
