Enrico Corte (1963) vive e lavora a New York e Roma. Adotta fin dal suo esordio un ruolo antinomico rispetto alle modalità abituali del fare arte, scegliendo di mostrare "ciò che non si vuol vedere", il lato oscuro della creatività che spesso confina col suo opposto, ossia con l'autodistruzione. Corte si colloca lontano sia dal gusto tipicamente italiano per la "leggerezza" sia dalla ricerca dello scandalo a tutti i costi, trovando invece inedite forme di bellezza plastica, fatali fascinazioni di fronte all'ignoto. Capovolgendo le regole stabilite del mercato dell'arte, che vorrebbero l'artista specializzato in un singolo "segno" riconoscibile nel tempo, Corte è intervenuto direttamente nel sociale tramite una moltiplicazione di stili, tecniche e soluzioni estetiche sufficienti per attrarre l'attenzione del suo pubblico e condurlo nei territori del turbamento e vertigine. I temi del pieno e del vuoto, e dell'equilibrio delle forme - tipici dell'arte scultorea classica - subiscono nuove metamorfosi e divengono metafore tragicomiche di un malessere sociale. In questa monografia su Corte, un saggio critico di Gianluca Marziani analizza una selezione di opere secondo un'ottica "spettroscopica" che annulla i concetti tradizionali di Evoluzione e Maturità. Attraverso questa interpretazione, il lavoro di Corte si colloca in una dimensione neurale, imitando lo sviluppo labirintico che regola il macrocosmo dei più oscuri ed inquietanti processi cerebrali.

Synopsis "Shadows on the wall" is an imagery of the authors artistic creation, displaying an imaginary view of a time when men believed themselves to be god, and so wouldn't believe the existence of supernatural beings, as they always had a scientific or technological explanation to all events, thus arouse great sense of disappointment and anger of neglect in an evil spirit who would rather want to be god and worshiped among humans, and thus the unknown began to happen in both worlds. And it so was it that at this same time, the underworld was getting much congested and thus, a solution on decongestion was being sort in importing some of the underworld habitants to the human world. For this a paths was created, which served as a linking way between underworld and human world, through which residence of the underworld was to move to the human world. But then, the angry spirit who was an Earl and a leader in the underworld grappled the opportunity to break through into earth, pervading on earth all forms of atrocities as revenge to their disloyalty and finally enslaving the two worlds in other to remain supreme. But then came an anti-dote of slavery, crimes and atrocities and the prophecy reveals him as "The Lord Defender" .he was also a cryptic in its peak, who made his own family in a little town by the coast, having no knowledge of the prophecy about him, and the future. But when the calamity stroke, it started from his house hood and then spreading to the entire universe. On his quest for survival, he saw it was his destiny calling, then he began to realize he was something more than a human, but not a spirit, something more than just a spirit as he discover the powers ingrained in him. Though having lost much, almost all he had, he sacrificed for that which he considered most, saving the universe.
