Perfect for crafty parents who are eager to get their kids excited about DIY, ProjectKid is everything you could want in a craft book: 100(!) stylish, inventive projects; step-by-step photographs; tips for the novice crafter; easy-to-follow instructions; and a fresh, modern look. What really sets these projects apart are the unexpected, ingenious ways Kingloff uses everyday objects and materials. (Did you ever think a body-wash bottle would make a perfect rocket ship?) And these are projects for things kids want to make—and keep—from a juice-box owl to a pirate ship to a curio cabinet for displaying all of their treasures, plus games, jewelry, and more. Also included in the book are basic crafting lessons (such as pom-pom making and weaving) to help children of all ages build a DIY arsenal, a handy guide to must-have tools and materials, and a source directory.

Thomas the Tank Engine. Hot Wheels.

Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel. Richard Scarry's Cars and Trucks and Things That Go. Kids' fascination with vehicles is insatiable. In Project Kid: Crafts That Go!, that excitement is translated into more than 60 inventive craft projects for parents to make with and for their children. The book is organized into seven chapters: City, Rails, Sky, Space, Water, Country, and Dirt. There are police cars and ice cream trucks; circus trains and submarines; helicopters, rocket ships, cement mixers, and school buses. And because the car-obsessed kid doesn't just want a new vehicle to play with—he wants a racetrack, his very own driver's license, maybe even a child-sized gas station—each chapter includes not only toys but also thematic clothing, decor, accessories, and more. Projects feature clear instructions and step-by-step photographs wherever they are needed, easy for both kids and non-crafty adults to understand.

Celebrating the seasons provides a wonderful opportunity to embrace creativity together as a family. It's also a fun way to decorate for, prepare for, and learn about the holidays we celebrate. In The Artful Year, you'll find a year's worth of art activities, crafts, recipes, and more to help make each season special. These artful explorations are more than just craft projects—they are ways for your family to create memories and mementos and develop creatively, all while exploring nature, new ideas, and traditions. The book includes:

- Arts and crafts, using the materials, colors, and themes of the season
- Ideas and decorations for celebrating the holidays together
- Favorite seasonal recipes that are fun for children to help make (and eat!)
- Suggested reading lists of children's picture books about the seasons and holidays

The 175+ activities in this book are perfect for children ages one to eight, and for creating traditions that appeal to all ages.

Project Kid: Crafts That Go! Simon and Schuster
 Tree, star, snowflake, elf, chimney, cookies, merry...introduce your little ones to words of the festive season with cute characters, bright colors, and playful scenes. From decorating the tree to Christmas dinner and candy cane to sleigh, this charming book introduces a range of different holiday scenes and objects. Along with the seasonal items, each scene contains one feeling word and one action word to spot, such as cheerful and ice skating—color-coded circles point them out. With a glitter-accented cover that adds visual and tactile interest, this fun book inspires a deeper knowledge of the world, introduces language skills, and supports emotional intelligence. An original, contemporary take on teaching first words, the My World in 100 Words series of board books helps children ages 1–3 boost vocabulary, engage with the world around them, and become familiar with specific subjects. With bright, playful illustrations from Sophie Beer, each book explores a different theme, including starting kindergarten, the garden, and the seaside. With 10 words per page and variation between full scenes and visual lists, there's plenty for children to look at and enjoy.

Auntie Claus North Light Books

This coloring book for grown-ups and teens has detailed hand-drawn line art illustrations and paper crafts in ink, adapted from the original Anni Arts Seasons and Reasons paper craft ranges. The images are unique and follow annual holidays, events and celebrations. They are now available as decorative pictures to color with pencil crayons or markers. There are 47 pages to color: 12 large main seasonal images and 35 craft project pages. The coloring pages and crafts are blank on the reverse. Some have lots of intricate detail, while others have larger areas of color blocking. None are overwhelmingly complex and all are very suitable for creative and relaxing coloring. The main illustrations can be colored and framed. The pretty paper crafts are fun to color, cut and make. The keepsake decorations are meant to be used for many years - thus coloring them lavishly and lovingly, is very worthwhile. The gift items have a focused area of intricate coloring for the main presentation pieces, while the content items have small and quick-to-color images. The crafts include a tie-on bottle label, a heart gift sachet, a greeting card topper and teabag packet, Easter bunting, a fragrance sachet, a stationery gift set, a tea tote and tea envelopes, shelf edging, a leaf wreath, goodie bags and a Holiday stocking. The original full color versions of these images can be seen on Anni Arts www.anniarts.com and on the Anni Arts Crafts site www.anniartscrafts.com. Some of the images have also been licensed for cross stitch and porcelain.
