According to the author, the Islamic world is locked in an internal struggle over how best to address and ultimately solve the problems endemic to many of its societies: namely, widespread poverty, extreme economic inequality, the prevalence of government by despotic rulers, and the inability to keep pace with emerging economies. The crisis concerns the choice the Islamic world faces between two diametrically opposed solutions. The loss of a coherent centre in Islam, and its fall as a global power, is at the heart of the current crisis in Islam. Of course

Islam is more than just a religion, it is a culture and civilization as well. For a millennia it enjoyed the status as a world power.
