These seventy-five duets are arranged for several combinations: two flutes, or various pairs of recorders, such as S&A, S&T, A&T, as well as equal instruments, such as two alto recorders. the duets are all fresh - no transcriptions and all arranged during 2009-2010. More than half of the duets are original compositions written specifically for this collection. While most of the duets are intermediate for flute and

Masterworks for Two Flutes, Book II Mel Bay Publications

The practice of duets can be a valuable contribution to the progress of any music student...elementary as well as advanced. First of all, duet playing is an enjoyable experience, adding variety and interest to the ordinary routine of studies and exercises. Secondly, duet playing provides an opportunity to develop many facets of musicianship that are essential to effective participation in small or large ensembles. To make most effective use of these duets, it is important that the teacher adapt them to the needs and abilities of the student, especially in the matter of selecting the best tempo. The objective should be to provide an attainable challenge for each student on each of the duets.
