Excerpt from *Bulletin De La Société Impériale des Naturalistes De Moscou, 1907, Vol. 21 Die eingehende Untersuchung der Entwicklung der Extremitäten der genannten Tierformen von den frühen Stadien bis zum erwachsenen Zustande bildet die embryologische Grundlage dieser Arbeit. Dabei beschränkte ich mich auf die freie Extremität; die Extremitätengürtel, welche in den Arbeiten meiner Vorgänger eine eingehende Bearbeitung gefunden haben und für die von mir aufgestellten Fragen von nicht so ausschlaggebender Bedeutung sind, wie die Bestandteile der freien Extremität, behandle ich nur beiläufig. Selbstverständlich war es höchst wichtig 'bei allen erwähnten Gruppen der niederen Tetrapoda alle Hauptorgansysteme der Extremität, d. H. Die Nerven, Muskeln, Gefäße und das Skelett im Zusammenhänge mit einander in derselben Weise, 'wie ich es für Ascalabotes zu tun versucht habe, zu behandeln und nur eine solche Arbeit könnte uns als Grundlage für eine auf sicherem Boden ruhende Theorie der Extremitäten dienen. Aber eine solche Untersuchung würde bei weitem den Rahmen einer einzelnen Arbeit und, infolge der ausserordentlichen technischen Schwierigkeiten, welche das Studium der Entwicklung der Muskeln und Nerven bietet, auch die Kräfte eines einzelnen Forschers überschreiten. Entomologique De Belgique, 1903, Vol. 47 J'ai sous les yeux nu exemplaire male, en assez mauvais 'tat, d'une grande espece axm'ricaine qui m'riterait pent-'tre de former un genre distinct. Ses'l'guments sont cribl's en dessous, sur les pattes et le prothorax, de gros points enfonc's, accompagn's de poils assez longs, couches, mais m'diocrement abondants. Ses 'lytres sont profond'ment Sillon'n'es, avec les intervalles entre les sillons costiformes et ponctu's. Enfin, son rostre differe de celui des males des autres espaces en cc qu'il est plus court, plus grele ci nu peu recourb' en haut a son extr'mit'; en dessus, il pr'sente deux rang'es de petits tubercules. Jusqu'ici on n'a rien signal' de pareil chez aucune esp'ce du genre. Cet insecte, dont je dois la connaissance a l'obligeance de M. De Lansberge, est originaire de Venezuela. Forgotten Books
This second collective volume of the series The Presence of the Prophet explores the growing importance of the figure of the Prophet Muhammad for questions of authority and power in early modern and modern times. The authors provide a rich collection of case studies on how Muhammad's material, spiritual, and genealogical heritage has been claimed for the foundation of Muslim empires, revolutionary movements, the formation of modern nation states and ideologies, as well as for communal mobilization and social reform. This novel comparative, and diachronic study, which is unique for its wide coverage of regional cases and perspectives, reveals diverse political representations of the Prophet in an increasingly globalised struggle over the control of his image between secularization and sacralization. Contributors Gianfranco Bria, Rachida Chih, Christoph Günther, Gottfried Hagen, Jan-Peter Hartung, David Jordan, Soraya Khodamoradi, Jamal Malik, Catherine

Mayeur-Jaouen, Alix Philippon, Martin Riexinger, Stefan Reichmuth, Dilek Sarmis, Renaud Soler, Jaafar Ben El Haj Soulami, Florian Zemmin.
